11:20 | SILVER BULLETS FOR SPORT INTEGRITY: SIRVS & SIGA SOLUTIONS

Integrity has become a go-to catchphrase in many realms, not least within sport. However, the definition of Integrity seems too often be both politically convenient and fluid – to say the least. For Integrity to be meaningful it must be implemented on a day-to-day basis, and evidence must be produced – proclamations and self-assessments are not enough. To help deliver the much-needed cultural change from rhetoric to reality SIGA is facilitating an independent solution: The SIGA Independent Rating and Verification System (SIRVS). The purpose of SIRVS is to assess and rate the sporting organisations' level of implementation of and compliance with the SIGA Universal Standards. Accountability and scrutiny are the keys to Integrity. In this panel you will hear the opinion of leading players on the importance of mechanisms such as SIRVS to guarantee that sport is governed and operated by the highest standards of integrity.

12:00 | SUSTAINING THE GAME: THE IMPORTANCE OF SPORTS BETTING INTEGRITY

Betting's range and diversity continue to evolve at a rapid pace and as such, it is critical to continually assess the impact and relevance of its regulation. As Sports betting markets grow and mature, become more accessible and more interactive, and regulatory frameworks need to be able follow this process closely. This Expert Panel will open our eyes to the complexities and cast an eye to the future of sports betting, and also make a point on the importance of education for prevention regarding sports values breaches.

14:00 | G20 & B20 - KEY PRIORITIES OF THE BRAZILIAN PRESIDENCY ON SPORT

In 2024, Brazil will assume the G20 presidency, being responsible for organizing the next Summit of Heads of State and Government and holding high-level preparatory meetings with engagement groups, such as the B20. This will be a decisive moment for Brazil to take the lead on major discussions, including tackling corruption in different sectors. In sports, for example, it is urgent to attack the deep roots of institutional corruption, led by individuals and criminal organizations. This panel reveals what is being discussed in readiness for the G20 and B20 in Brazil and shows how sport can be included in the debate agenda, promoting consensus that could shape the future of the industry.

14:40 | GLOBAL BUSINESS: USHERING LATIN AMERICA INTO A NEW ERA OF SPORT INTEGRITY

Throughout sport, from grassroots to professional, from recreation to competition Sport and business are linked. From manufacturers of sports goods and services to those that wish to be associated with athletes, clubs, leagues or sports events, all can use Sport to forward their agendas, amplify their outreach and grow their market share. What is less straight forward is the role that business can have in the realm of sports development and in its professionalization. This Expert Panel sheds light on how companies can best use their influence to instigate profound cultural change and better embed integrity in sports.

15:30 | GAME CHANGED? GENDER EQUITY, ANTI-RACISM, DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

There is no social phenomenon as powerful as sport to involve, awaken emotions and serve as a behavioral reference for people. Even if relatively late and with some setbacks, the sport has taken its first steps towards diversity and inclusion, in line with its potential to be a space for everyone. In this long path, gender equality and fighting racism gained projection and important allies. On the one hand, sport must guarantee equal development opportunities for men and women, boys and girls. On the other hand, it is not acceptable that social diseases such as racism and prejudice of any kind are part of the sporting environment and oppress athletes because of their origin and skin color. In this panel we have experts to address these issues and how we can keep moving forward.

DIVERSITY AND RESPECT = INTEGRITY

WE ARE ALL DIFFERENT, AND WE RESPECT EACH OTHER.

“The Integrity Match proves that we can change anyone's mindset to respect integrity in sports, preserving the exciting unpredictability of game results and promoting fair play.”

Sports show us that it's not only possible but also natural to embrace diversity respectfully and include everyone. By doing so, we reject all forms of prejudice, like racism, sexism, and any kind of exclusion of those who are different.”

11:25 – 12:10 | PANEL 1

WHAT MONEY CAN'T BUY: USING DUE DILIGENCE AND RISK ASSESSMENTS AS A GROWTH CATALYST IN SPORT

Integrity through your business relationships is critical, through every jurisdiction and sector - the sports industry included. Regulatory risk - from complex sanctions regimes, demanding anti-money laundering and anti-corruption laws - and reputational risk, present significant challenges to organisations operating in the industry. But identifying and mitigating these risks across your value chain is easier said than done. This panel will consider the nature of the risks and discuss practical steps for how sports organisations and companies working with them can identify, assess, and manage them.

FIRESIDE CHAT • 12:10 - 12:25

The way global society consumes sport is changing, quickly, irreversibly and in unpredictable ways. Not too long ago the 'metaverse' would be considered the realm of sci-fi fiction, not the next frontier of sports tech. At a time where Sports Media Rights are at an unprecedented high, this session explores the challenges the industry faces to maintain control. This fireside chat will shine a light on the evolutions, risks, opportunities, and implications of how Sport can be accessed, consumed, and monetised in both legal and illegal ways. The speakers will share their expert knowledge to help inform and enable others to navigate these shifting sands and better protect the Integrity of Sport.

SIRVS: DELIVERING ACCOUNTABILITY TO THE SPORTS INDUSTRY

Integrity has become a go-to catchphrase in many industries, including sport. However, the definition of integrity is often politically evoked whilst conveniently fluid. For integrity to be meaningful it must be implemented on a day-to-day basis. To deliver the much-needed cultural change from rhetoric to reality SIGA is facilitating an independent solution: The SIGA Independent Rating and Verification System (SIRVS). The purpose of SIRVS is to assess and rate the sporting organisations' level of implementation of, and compliance with, the SIGA Universal Standards. Accountability and scrutiny are key to integrity. Tune in to hear the thoughts of industry leaders who are at the forefront of this revolution.

POLITICAL AND INSTITUTIONAL ENDORSEMENTS

We have seen over the years the words transparency and integrity have meaning, but there is no real action. SIGA is correctly trying to rectify that, so I felt it was my duty to contribute. We need to change the mentality and I feel like as I'm starting individually as an entrepreneur it made sense to partner with SIGA.

Louis Saha
SIGA Champion; International Football Legend; Founder & CEO AxisStars

We have adopted in the G20 Anti-Corruption Working Group Acti-vity an action plan considering Sport as an emerging risk. I want to thank SIGA for all its efforts and for including corruption in Sport in the multilateral agenda as an emerging issue.

Giovanni Tartaglia Polcini,
Chair of the G20 Italy AntiCorruption Working Group; Chair, SIGA Council

I welcome SIGA's proposal to put in place Universal Standards on Sport Integrity and an Independent Rating and Verification System (SIRVS), which will be very useful to restore people's trust in Sport.

Lorenzo Salazar,
Deputy Chair of the OECD Working Group on Bribery in International Transactions, General Prosecutor, Naples Appeal Court, Contact Point, EUROJUST:

Knowledge sharing and constructive dialogue are essential to make sure that organisations are in the best position to tackle those issues. This agreement with SIGA, a valued partner and a global leader on sport integrity, is therefore an important step in this direction.

Aleksander Čeferin,
UEFA President

SIGA's efforts to create and implement certification programme are key to the accountability that is required across sport to create the mechanism that allows sport to have specific & quantitative standards that put us all accountable to some benchmarks.

Jessica Berman,
Commissioner, NWSL

We're committed to working with organizations like SIGA to bring diverse perspectives to the table to unlock powerful ideas that open up the world's possibilities to women -in sport and across industries.
